Ex Kaala—1300 bags sugar, 400 bags rice.The Y. M. C. A. Orchestra.

The newly formed Y. M. C. A. orchestra had a splendid rehearsal last evening, W. S. Keough, the clarinet player in the Hawaiian band, acting as leader. Three pieces were practised. The instruments represented were 4 first violins, 4 second violins, 2 cellos, one flute, two cornets, one trombone, snare drum and tuba. The members present, after the rehearsal, expressed themselves as satisfied if Mr. Keough would continue as leader. Some arrangement will probably be made with him. New music is expected by the Australis. It is earnestly hoped that the members will make a point of attending the rehearsals regularly, for on that depends entirely the success of the orchestra.

Maid of Hawaii, we so part
Give my back, not my heart.
But the shadow, everything,
Bring to go, nothing, everything.
I'll fight out and give to you,
When our summer love has a new,
Give them back, and I will do,
Find another where they fit,
While in Brown & Kirby's store,
You can buy a new dress, money.Empire Saloon
